

Hertfordshire Association for Local History

Symposium 2024 on the topic of Post War Hertfordshire

This is an advanced notice of the Symposium.

Details

Date: Saturday 12 October from 10am to 4pm

Place: The Katherine Warrington School, Harpenden, AL5 5FH

This symposium coincides with HALH's 75th anniversary. We look this year at aspects of life in Hertfordshire after the Second World War.

The programme includes the following talks:

"Hertfordshire Local History in the 1950s and 1960s" by Heather Falvey (President of HALH)

"New Towns in Hertfordshire" by Hertfordshire Archives and Local Studies

"The Austerity Years: Life in Watford, 1945–1950" by Helen George

"Local History and its Public Image in the 1940s" by Philip Sheail

"Bedsteads, Go-karts & Lawnmowers: Student life and learning in Hatfield, 1952– 1992" by Julie Moore

"Innovation and Investigation: Hertfordshire and the Jet Age" by Rudi Newman
